INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

There are countless academic studies that show the benefits of employing a momentum factor based approach to investing. The problem is there are a number of different approaches to try to capture momentum. The Fund uses Trendrating's innovative platform to identify stocks that have the highest momentum based on their proprietary scoring system. The universe is composed of the largest 500 US Stocks based on market cap. Stocks that are shown to be in a bullish trend are kept and those shown to be in a bearish trend are eliminated. When ranking stocks, we also use retracement as a tool to narrow the universe. The remaining stocks in the universe are then ranked by their Smart Momentum Score, which is a Trendrating score that measures the strength of the current trend. The 25 stocks with the strongest Smart Momentum Score are included in the portfolio. Positions that have moved to a bearish trend are replaced with positive trending stocks monthly.

IMPORTANT FUND INFORMATION

Mutual Funds involve risk including the possible loss of principal. These risks could include liquidity risk, sector risk, as well as risks associated with fixed income securities, real estate investments, and commodities, to name a few. In general, the price of a fixed income security falls when interest rates rise. The Fund may invest, directly or indirectly, in "junk bonds". Such securities are speculative investments that carry greater risks than higher quality debt securities. Investments in lesser-known, small and medium capitalization companies may be more vulnerable than larger, more established organizations. Investments in foreign securities could subject the Fund to greater risks including, currency fluctuation, economic conditions, and different governmental and accounting standards. Increased portfolio turnover may result in higher brokerage commissions, dealer mark-ups and other transaction costs and may result in taxable capital gains.

There is no guarantee that any investment strategy will achieve its objectives or avoid losses.
